

The World Phenomenology Institute's Panel at the XXV World Congress of Philosophy, Rome, August 1-8, 2024:

“Crossing the boundaries of dualism with the Eco-Phenomenology of Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka (1923-2014).
Marking 101 years from her birth and 10 years from her death.”

has been officially accepted by the Secretary of the World Congress of Philosophy.

We will present our panel at the XXV World Congress of Philosophy in Rome.

Our panel is listed at no. 2395 of the website: <https://wcprome2024.com/round-tables/>

The exact date of the World Phenomenology Institute's panel will be announced by May 2024.

All World Phenomenology Institute friends who are registered with the World Congress of Philosophy, Rome 2024, are warmly invited to be present.

In addition to the scheduled sessions, there will be the possibility of free sessions to share ideas for the best development and widest diffusion of the perspective of the onto-poiesis of life.

OFFICERS

Executive President, Dr. William S. Smith william.smith@phenomenology.org
Co-President – American Division, Dr. Jadwiga S. Smith jadwiga.smith@phenomenology.org
Co-President – European Division, Dr. Daniela Verducci daniela.verducci@phenomenology.org